

Weimar
University

Counseling Psychology and Wellness, MA

“

Studying psychology at an institution like Weimar University has given me the opportunity to view mental health and illness through the lens of the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. My one desire is to reach the world by sharing the spiritual, physical, and mental healing available through the blood of Jesus. Weimar University has given me an excellent training ground for this line of work.

—Heidi Marcoux

”

Learn more about
Counseling Psychology and Wellness, MA

The Counseling Psychology and Wellness, MA graduate program is a Biblically-based, Christ-centered program that will prepare students to pursue licensure as either a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT) or a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC).

NINE REASONS TO JOIN US

In the US, 1 in 5 adults suffers from a debilitating mental health disorder. Furthermore, children in public school settings are frequently exposed to many unhealthy points of view; Satan's battle is often in the mind.

Weimar University's Counseling Psychology and Wellness Master's Program

1. Delivers quality, Scripture-based education.
2. Fosters one-on-one contact with faculty as a result of low student-to-teacher ratios.
3. Trains students in psychotherapy for individuals, couples, families, and groups.
4. Teaches students the art of counseling for multiple age groups.
5. Trains students to provide therapy to multicultural groups.
6. Explores crisis, trauma, and abuse counseling.
7. Familiarizes students with the legal issues that can occur in therapy within the state of California.
8. Includes on-campus and online options.
9. Helps students accrue hours towards licensure through supervised face-to-face counseling.

Learn more about
Counseling Psychology and Wellness, MA

After licensure and/or certification, a graduate from Weimar University's Counseling Psychology and Wellness Master's program can use their degree to serve the Lord in a number of fields. These areas include (but are not limited to):

- The public sector and non-profit organizations: Working with county mental health clinics, state agencies, etc.
- The government: Working with veterans or the military, both at home and abroad.
- The private sector: Working with companies, for-profit agencies, and private practices.
- Working with a specific population: Teenagers, the incarcerated, the elderly, or in church settings.
- Consultation: Working as a consultant to businesses and agencies.
- Forensics: Working as a consultant and forensics counselor.

Disclosure Statement:

In accordance with federal requirements, updated July 1, 2020, specifying that all academic programs offering preparation for state licensure must notify students of whether or not the program's academic requirements aligns with their state licensure requirements, Weimar University discloses that the MA Counseling Psychology and Wellness program curriculum is currently approved for licensure requirements only in the state of California. Any changes will be reflected in an updated disclosure statement.

BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR

Since August 2017, Weimar University's weekly service program called Total Community Involvement (TCI) has gotten attention. Even peer reviewers from an accrediting team have especially recognized TCI and its impact.

Each week, students, faculty, and staff spend a half-day meeting individual and group needs in the surrounding communities. It's yardwork, decluttering, helping people moving, health education for individuals and groups, healthy cooking demos, visiting with invalids and the lonely, and more.

Thanks to private donations, TCI teams have been able to give over 2.5 million dollars worth of their time in free medical care and other services since TCI began. It's our way of sincerely and practically sharing the gospel through a helping hand, a smile, or a conversation that can all lead to Christ.

THE WEIMAR DIFFERENCE

Weimar University was founded to impart a knowledge of God to its students. In order to do this, we follow the most effective methods of education: God's methods. Only by following these methods can we impart true education to our students.

Weimar University admits the students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. Weimar University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

20601 West Paoli Lane,
Weimar, CA 95736
(530) 422-7923
admissions@weimar.edu
www.weimar.edu